Las Casitas Resort is a secluded retreat, atop a 300-foot bluff, overlooking the shimmering turquoise ocean of the Caribbean Sea. The expansive villas nestled amidst a lush tropical forest and the Caribbean shoreline, offer guests an intimate setting with beautiful garden and ocean views. Each villa is appointed with modern amenities, features fully equipped kitchens and is serviced 24 hours by professional butlers.

The Golden Door Spa is a haven of tranquility with 25 private treatment rooms offering a transformative journey beginning with a Japanese bath under a waterfall. Guests will delight in gourmet dining with an extensive selection of international cuisine, including Japanese and Italian.

An array of activities are available, from golf at the 72-par Arthur Hills Golf course to a day of fun on Palomino, the resort's 100-acre private island featuring exhilarating watersports, horseback riding and pristine white sand beaches. Family fun reaches new heights at the sea-side Coqui Water Park featuring thrilling waterslides, a lazy river, a kid's activity pool, and an expansive infinity edge pool.

Profile: 157 villas, children under 18 free in parents' room, access to 23 restaurants and lounges at El Conquistador, 24 hour butler service, casino, golf, spa, waterpark, 100-acre private island with an array of watersports, horseback riding, deep sea fishing, fitness center and jogging trail. Located on a bluff, 45 minutes from San Juan International Airport, with nonstop flights from major US cities.
