*A*manyara (Peaceful Place) is located along the pristine coast of Northwest Point on the island of Providenciales. It borders Northwest Point Marine National Park, nestled within an 18,000 acre nature preserve. This is the first resort by Asia’s renowned Amanresorts to be created in the Caribbean. Amanyara is one of the most sought after luxury destinations in the Americas. In the best tradition of Amanresorts, the property has been conceived with the natural environment in mind, its soft muted tones are inspired by nature, while offering superior accommodations and service.

Embracing a landscape of ocean, beach and water features, Amanyara is comprised of contemporary Pavilions and fully serviced, private Villas ranging from three to five bedrooms. Dedicated, Aman trained staff offer personalized service with a high guest to staff ratio. The Restaurant, The Beach Club and The Bar offer Asian and island inspired health conscious cuisine with indoor and outdoor dining options featuring ocean views or pool-side lounging Salas for sunset watching. The New Nature Discovery Centre offers daily activities for guests of all ages to explore the resort’s natural wonders. There is also world-class diving, deep sea fishing and access to golf.

Profile: 40 freestanding Pavilions and 20 private villas ranging from three to five bedrooms, children under 12 free in parents’ room, 2 restaurants and The Bar, fitness center, spa, 30 seat movie screening room and library, complimentary Wi-Fi, resort boutique, 24 hour room service, tennis, golf nearby. Complimentary airport transfers, international and local telephone calls, morning yoga classes, tennis courts including lessons and watersports. Located on the beach, 25 minutes from Providenciales Airport, with nonstop flights from major US cities. Closed September 3 through October 3, 2012.
