

RAFFLES HOTEL SINGAPORE

One of the world's more iconoclastic hotels, Raffles Hotel Singapore exudes colonial grandeur and timeless elegance in the heart of Singapore. Heralded worldwide for its legendary service, the hotel building is recognized as Singapore's most graceful landmark.

The hotel features colonial styled suites with lofty ceilings, each elegantly appointed with classical furnishing and modern amenities, opening up to breezy verandas and surrounded by sweeping private lawns. The third floor swimming pool offers an oasis with views of the Singapore skyline. The Raffles Spa, set amidst this historic hotel, offers guests a sanctuary for renewal.

Guests need to stay at least two weeks at Raffles Hotel Singapore to sample all its spectacular culinary offerings, including French fine dining at the Raffles Grill, the Writers Bar and the legendary Long Bar where the famous Singapore Sling originated (and still much enjoyed).

Adjoining the hotel is the Raffles Arcade with 35 stores, including the renowned Raffles Gift Shop and international brands including Tiffany & Co. and Louis Vuitton.

Profile: 103 suites, children under 11 free in parent's room, 15 restaurants and bars, spa, pool, gym, library, Wi-Fi and 24 hour butler service. Located 20 minutes from Changi International Airport with nonstop flights from the US (New York, Los Angeles and Houston), Europe and Asia. Open year round.

- ◆ Legendary Colonial Grandeur
- ◆ Singapore National Monument
- ◆ 2011 Condé Nast Traveler Hot List
- ◆ "Singapore Sling" Designed, Created and Enjoyed at the Long Bar

Asia
SINGAPORE