

BURJ AL ARAB

- ◆ All-Suite Luxury Hotel
- ◆ Quintessential Landmark of Dubai
- ◆ Luxury Hermès Amenities
- ◆ Close Proximity to Major Attractions – Private Beach, Wild Wadi Waterpark, Mall of the Emirates, Ski Dubai

Rising from the Arabian Gulf, on an island 900 feet from the shores of the renowned Jumeirah Beach stands the iconic Burj Al Arab, a masterpiece of contemporary architecture and the world's most all-suite luxurious hotel. Connected to the mainland by a causeway, guests arrive by one of the world's largest fleets of Rolls-Royces or by an exclusive helicopter transfer. Discreet in-suite check-in, a private reception desk on every floor and a brigade of highly trained butlers provide around the clock attention and assure unsurpassed personalized service.

Every suite benefits from complimentary full sized Hermès bathroom amenities, a decadent bath menu and a bedding menu offering a range of 17 pillows and quilts. Burj Al Arab's renowned six gourmet dining venues are among the finest and most unique in the world. Exclusive to Burj Al Arab, the Assawan Spa & Health Club, located on the 18th floor with spectacular views, offers unique nature based treatments for rejuvenation. Guests indulge in relaxing rituals of water, steam and rest, using world-renowned products from houses such as La Prairie, Voya and Therae.
