

FOUR SEASONS RESORT SEYCHELLES

- ◆ Secluded Location Overlooking One of Mahé's Most Picture-Perfect Beaches
- ◆ Treetop Villas all with Private Infinity Pools
- ◆ Hilltop Spa Cantilevered Over the Tropical Canopy
- ◆ Authentic Creole Cuisine and Creole Cooking Class

Cascading down a secluded hillside in south Mahé, Four Seasons Resort Seychelles is a tropical amphitheatre of treetop villas circling a pristine, azure bay. Lushly forested paths link the powder white beach to the resort's 67 expansive, stilted accommodations amongst the mango, jackfruit and cinnamon trees. Built in traditional Creole-style, each villa and suite features its own private infinity pool cleverly integrated into vast wooden terraces, as well as indoor and outdoor showers and giant ocean-view baths.

High above the resort, the dramatic, contemporary spa hovers above the treetops, offering indigenous, Asian-inspired therapies and never-ending views. Two restaurants and a poolside bar serve Mediterranean cuisine with Middle Eastern influences in addition to the colorful local specialties.

From castaway days to vibrant Creole nights, guests will bask in the cultural and culinary essences of the Seychelles infused with legendary Four Seasons care.
