

ROSEWOOD MAYAKOBA

Rosewood Mayakoba's 128 ultra-luxury suites overlook either the resort's

tranquil lagoons or the white-sand beach with spectacular views of the Caribbean Sea. Strikingly modern in design, the suites feature a look that is "Island Resort Chic," with clean open spaces and contemporary furnishings. Each is adorned with regional artwork and outfitted with wooden lattices and screens for natural airiness. In addition, accommodations feature over-sized tubs, private gardens with outdoor shower, roof-top sun decks or patios with a plunge pool, and boat docks. The resort offers a sophisticated range of dining options from elegant to casual and an Agave Azul Tequila Library.

The adults only Rosewood Spa "Sense" is ensconced on its own island featuring eight island suites and a private treatment room. The peace and beauty of the surroundings inspire both physical and spiritual escape and rejuvenation. With its staff of highly trained professionals, the spa provides unmatched health and beauty wellness experiences. Access to the spa facilities, include a heated pool, fully equipped gym, saunas, steam rooms, jacuzzi, cold plunge pool and relaxation areas as well as yoga and meditation classes.
