

ROSEWOOD TUCKER'S POINT

- ◆ Newly Part of the Rosewood Collection
- ◆ Striking Spa with SilverTag® Hydrotherapy Suite, One of Only Three in the Spa World
- ◆ 18-Hole Roger Rulewich-Designed Golf Course
- ◆ Ultimate Vistas

Bermuda's first new luxury hotel in nearly 40 years, Rosewood Tucker's Point is anchored by a stately Manor House, dramatically perched above Castle Harbor, a 17th Century anchorage guarded by the 'Castle' islands.

This enchanting resort features a private pink sand beach with 88 guestrooms and suites decorated in a classic British style of refined finishes and distinctive artwork. The richly appointed five-fixture bathrooms feature deep soaking tubs, and expansive balconies and terraces provide commanding water views. Guests of Rosewood Tucker's Point enjoy world-class amenities, including a newly designed 12,000 square-foot spa with eight treatment rooms and a SilverTag® hydrotherapy suite, one of only three in the world. Guests can also take pleasure in satiating their palate in fine or casual dining at one of the four signature restaurants.

The exclusive Golf, Beach & Tennis Club features two pools overlooking the ocean, two restaurants and bars, an 18-hole championship Golf Course and Pro Shop, a tennis center with four Har-Tru tennis courts and its own Pro Shop. This resort is truly a unique destination offering a specialty for everyone.
