Viceroy Anguilla Resort & Residences represents the pinnacle of understated and opulent resort living on Anguilla. Situated on 35 verdant acres, with over 3,200 feet of beachfront along both Barnes Bay and Meads Bay, this exclusive haven is home to brilliantly designed accommodations which range from ocean view studios to luxurious five bedroom villas set on beachfront amid foliage, or cliff-top for arresting panoramic views. Viceroy Anguilla lends itself to the perfect family getaway or for couples and friends to reconnect and recharge.

An 8,000 square-foot ocean front spa offer a variety of specialized treatments designed to restore balance and rejuvenate. The oceanfront bluff-top Sunset Lounge is the perfect place to take in the spectacular Anguillan sunset while sipping signature cocktails. The signature restaurant Coba takes its name from an Arawak Indian term meaning temple on cliff top amidst ruffling waters and draws inspiration from local ingredients. Other culinary delights include Aleta, a casual restaurant, Bamboo Bar & Grill for a beach-chic, toes in the sand dining experience and the Half Shell, an intimate beach bar on Barnes Bay.
