ANTIGUA

*J*umby Bay, A Rosewood Resort is an exclusive, all-inclusive retreat set on its own enchanting 300-acre private island, two miles off the coast of Antigua. Accessible only by boat, the resort offers upscale travelers a relaxed and authentic Caribbean escape with superb white-sand beaches and lush tropical environs.

After a multi-million dollar transformation at Jumby Bay, comes the introduction of a new spa- Sense, A Rosewood Spa®, open-air and bistro-style restaurants, additional exquisite Estate Homes, new suites and fully enhanced accommodations. Each suite is an oasis of luxurious idleness embodying the island's stylish good taste, with casually elegant décor, comfortable sitting areas, private verandahs set with elegant teak furnishings. The resort is renowned for its world-class service, as well as an array of watersports, tennis, three miles of hiking and biking trails, croquet lawn, putting green, fitness center and 25-meter freshwater lap pool.

Blending seamlessly into the island's landscape, the newly renovated Verandah Restaurant offers enticing "Carib-Pean" cuisine in an atmosphere of understated elegance, while The Estate House, set in a 230-year-old English plantation manor, beckons with Casablanca-style ambience and emphasis on Mediterranean cuisine.

Profile: All-inclusive resort, 40 rooms & suites, 16 villas with private pools and 8 estate homes, children under 2 free in parents' room, 3 restaurants, 2 pools, fitness center, tennis, croquet lawn, spa and golf nearby. Located on a private island, two miles from Antigua, 10 minutes by private boat launch, with nonstop flights from major US cities. Closed August 28 through October 7, 2012.
