Island Destinations has announced the launch of a new hotel collection—IDx, The Power of Travel—featuring a distinct selection of vacation resorts and hotels (many all-inclusive) from world-renowned hotel groups including AMResorts, Karisma Hotels, Melia Hotels and Sandals Resorts to name a few. The IDx collection features properties in the Caribbean, Mexico and Costa Rica with plans for expansion to other destinations in the near future.

Travel advisors will receive 16 percent commission as an introductory incentive for all bookings through Sept. 2 for travel anytime.

“With IDx, we are offering travel advisors with clients seeking the complete vacation experience a powerful travel resource dedicated exclusively to their service.” says president and CEO Maurice Bonham-Carter. “In addition to an exceptional selection of hotels and resorts, a team of travel experts, and excellent service, travel advisors can also rely on IDx to provide the same benefits as Island Destinations, including commission and clients’ bookings protection through our SPF 24/7, The Ultimate Pre- and Post-Departure Protection Plan, the most comprehensive in the industry.”
