

AMANKILA

Amankila, or 'peaceful hill,' is set on a cliff side in the heart of one of Bali's most historic regions. From the intimate, airy lobby, one can already see hints of the beautiful views that the resort promises. The private stretch of 'pepper-sand' beach and the beach club are nestled below the resort, at the base of the cliff. There, private lounging bales or daybeds stretch out along the beach, inviting guests to relax.

The suites are elevated, showcasing the spectacular views of the lush hillsides and the sea below. They feature wide window views, canopied beds and outdoor terraces. The high staff-to-guest ratio allows for impeccable and very personalized service

Dining options include The Restaurant for dinner, which overlooks the infinity pool and ocean, the poolside Terrace Restaurant for breakfast and lunch, and Amankila's Bar with its views of the sea. The Beach Club offers a simple menu of salads, pizzas, Indonesian and western light dishes for lunch and all day snacks. Afternoon tea is served daily in front of the library, where local women dressed in sarongs and kebayas offer Indonesian ginger tea, Bali kopi and local Balinese cakes.
