

CAPELLA PEDREGAL

In the southernmost tip of Mexico's Baja California, rests Capella Pedregal on the most dramatic site of the Peninsula. A newly built and privately owned tunnel in Mexico, Dos Mares is the gateway to this hidden luxury. Carved through the heart of the mountain's foundation, it is a 300-meter long engineering feat that separates the town of Cabo from the Pacific Ocean. Expect the unexpected at the end of the tunnel where guests are met with the ultimate luxury experience beginning with a breathtaking view of the Spa's entrance courtyard overlooking a long expanse of beach and the ocean.

Capella Pedregal's accommodations are defined by their natural environment where the desert is balanced with the ocean. Every guest room and suite is beautifully handcrafted with Mexican artistry, spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean, each with a private terrace and plunge pool, a rainforest with separate handheld shower and tub, a telescope for a picture perfect setting, and luxury amenities for guests to enjoy.

Three superb and distinct dining locations, a 12,000 square foot Auriga spa, featuring outdoor treatment rooms and its own private pool as well as three guests pools complete the Capella Pedregal experience.
