

CARLISLE BAY

Carlisle Bay offers the ultimate contemporary luxury on one of Antigua's most ravishing beaches. Stunning modern design is combined with cool calm interiors to create a uniquely harmonious ambiance of architectural beauty and distinguished elegance. Add superior service and attention, and this tropical paradise is one of the premier luxury destinations of the West Indies.

With eighty-two exquisitely designed suites all with fantastic ocean views and eclectic furnishings, Carlisle Bay offers sophisticated travelers true yet informal chic with the option for everything the Caribbean offers. Fine creative cuisine is served in two locations - Indigo on the Beach offers delicious healthy grills, seafood and salads, whilst dramatically lit East offers inspired Pan-Asian fare in a stunning contemporary setting (no children allowed after 7:30pm - but will open earlier for families wishing to dine with young children). Complimentary breakfast and afternoon tea can be delivered to guests' rooms.

For recreation, guests may choose from a wide selection of watersports, state-of-the-art gymnasium, guided nature walks in the rainforest, an exceptional spa with six luxurious rooms, yoga and Pilates pavilion, all set in beautiful grounds along a sweeping white sand beach, with a backdrop of lush tropical foliage. For those aged 6 months to 12 years there is The Cool Kids Club with supervised activities. A new pre-teen program will be implemented for 2010.

Profile: 82 spacious suites, (junior to 3 bedroom, all with DVD players), children under 2 free in parents' room, 9 tennis courts, watersports, movie screening room, 2 restaurants, 3 bars, spa, gym, diving, library, 24 hour room service. Minimal charge for kids' club ages 6 months to 2 years with one to one care - ages 2-12 are complimentary. On its own beach, 30 minutes from Antigua Airport. New nonstop flights from major US cities. Closed August 28-October 15, 2010.

- ◆ Simply Fascinating Resort
- ◆ Contemporary Luxury on the Beach
- ◆ Striking Design and Architecture
- ◆ Exquisite Oversized Accommodations
- ◆ New Pre-Teen Programme for 2010