Dominican Republic's north coast is home to the glittering beaches of the Amber Coast, tropical mountain ranges, historic Spanish forts, challenging golf courses and the area's first and only five star boutique resort, Casa Colonial Beach & Spa.

To discover a place where dreams come true, come to Casa Colonial for an escapist's fantasy. The colonial mansion sets out to surprise and delight with its fusion of old-world charm and contemporary elegance. Situated in the heart of Playa Dorada directly on the beach, the lavish 50-room boutique property reveals colonial chic while embracing the values of comfort, hospitality and service. Striking ocean and tropical garden views from private balconies set the stage for visually stunning living rooms. The temptations are endless at Casa Colonial – the state-of-the-art Bagua Spa, with trained attendants to remove all vestige of stress with tropical outdoor treatment pavilions overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. The cuisine varies widely – Cajun, Thai and International – attentively served in two restaurants or in the intimacy of your suite.

Lucia, the air-conditioned gourmet restaurant features an extensive dinner menu and wine list with spectacular views of the resort's exotic mangrove gardens.
