

THE RITZ-CARLTON, GRAND CAYMAN

- ◆ AAA Five Diamond Resort
- ◆ On Beautiful Seven Mile Beach
- ◆ Spans an Incredible 144 Acres
- ◆ Close to Stingray City
- ◆ 20,000 Square Foot Spa

Enter a luxury wonderland featuring luxurious exclusive amenities, including a golf course designed by Greg Norman, custom tennis programs by Nick Bollettieri, restaurant by Eric Ripert of Le Bernardin, an 'Ambassadors of the Environment' program by Jean-Michel Cousteau and the only La Prairie Spa in the Caribbean. The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman has set a new standard for a world-class resort, with rooms and public areas reflecting a tasteful opulence only exceeded by the personalized service offered by the dedicated staff.

The hotel is located on the famously beautiful and exclusive Seven Mile Beach, and the property stretches from sea to sea, spanning the island from the Caribbean to the North Sound. Recreational activities abound, with watersports of every kind, as well as eco-adventures such as naturalist-accompanied snorkeling trips and mangrove kayaking. After a day's adventures, indulge in a culinary journey at one of the resort's five restaurants or experience a grand level of relaxation in the 20,000 square foot spa.

Profile: 365 rooms including 36 suites, children under 17 free in parents' room in most categories, 5 restaurants, 2 lounges, spa, tennis, children's program, 2 pools, outdoor jacuzzi, 9-hole golf course, 3 red clay tennis courts, one grass court, beauty salon, fitness center, internet access available, Club Concierge services, 24 hour room service. 15 minutes from the Grand Cayman Airport, nonstop flights from major US cities. Open year round.